ARREST OF NEGROES IMPLICATED IN THE MURDER OF MR. ROBERT P. SUGGS.—A special telegram to the Charleston News, dated Florence, June 19, says:

It will be remembered that Cyrus Coachman, the negro hung at Darlington, yesterday, for the murder of Robert P. Suggs, (white) on the 10th of January, 1868, confessed that Sim Evans and Charlie Howe, (negro witnesses for the State against Coachman, and who, as deputy sheriffs arrested him,) organized the party that killed Suggs and robbed his store. As soon as the confession was made Governor Scott was telegraphed to for instructions. He ordered the negroes to be arrested at once. Accordingly, last night, a constable arrested Sim Evans at his house here, and then went to Howe's house, where Howe was found lying on the floor asleep. The constable aroused him, and stated that he wanted him to go to Darlington. Howe replied, "I've just been dreaming of Darlington; I am ready to go with you." It is thought that there is sufficient evidence to hang both negroes.

THE DUTIES OF RAILROAD CONDUCTORS. The New York Supreme Court has decided that if a passenger on a railway train cannot find a seat, and gets injured while standing, in consequence, upon the platform, he is not to be blamed for negligence; but that the negligence must be imputed to the conductor. It is the latter's business to find a seat for the passenger, not the passenger's business to look for one.

A Western editor is pleased to be facetious upon the names of Maine lakes. He says: "They say the fish in Lake Holley-bunkemunk, Maine, are said to be superior to those of either Lake Weeeyabacook or Moosetockmaganie. Those of Chaubungogungamung are very fine, but they all got choked to death in trying to tell where they lived!"

The latest thing in dresses—Night-dresses.

"Tall oaks from little acorns grow, Large streams from little fountains flow."

Seven years ago the PLANTATION BITTERS were but little known. To-day there is not a nook or corner of our land where they are not found and used. The sale has reached the enormous number of Five Millions of Bottles annually, and it is constantly increasing. It only shows what can be done with a really good medicine, and a systematic course of making it known. Perhaps no medicine in the world was ever so deservedly popular as the PLANTATION BITTERS. Go where you will, among the rich or poor, and you will always find these Bitters in use. Their merit has become an established fact, and we cordially recommend them in cases of dyspepsia, loss of appetite, chills and fever, headache, &c., &c.

A NEW DISCOVERY.—A German chemist has discovered that if morphia, which is sometimes used effectually to allay vomiting, be heated with hydro-chloric acid, it will become the most powerful emetic known. The effect is produced by introducing a small quantity under the skin and sometimes by spilling it on the skin, but the vomiting soon subsides, and leaves no nausea. The discoverer calls the new agent ememorphia.

MULLIN'S FUNERAL ORATION.—Mullins, recently a radical member of Congress from Tennessee, thus speaks of the death of an Arkansas carpet-bagger killed by another carpet-bagger: "He sank to death in the soliloquy of his own blood; we shall view him no more till the chaotic torch of Gabriel wakes to living consciousness the universal dome, and we shall see ourselves as others see us in that bourne whence no traveler returns."

The sugar crop of the world is reported to amount to 2,800,000 tons per annum. Of this amount the United States consumes 530,000 tons, and Great Britain 680,000. The consumption of sugar in this country is increasing annually, having been raised to the extent of 67,000 tons in 1868 above 1867. Of the total production, Cuba has heretofore yielded one-third, and the Southern States produced 100,000 tons in 1868.

DEATH IN A WELL.—A desperate conflict recently took place at Cairo, in this County, between two negro men, while at work in a well they had been employed to dig. One of them stabbed the other so severely that he died, and the murderer was lodged in jail for trial at the present term of the Court. A white man witnessed the deadly conflict from the top of the well, but had no means of interfering.—Thomasville Enterprise, 16th.

BEAUTIFUL PRESENT.—We noticed a fellow the other day wearing a large ring with a brilliant red setting; he wore it in a queer place—around his eye. Upon making inquiry, he informed us that they didn't cost much, and people generally received and wore them who deserved them. He says it was given him. [San Francisco Mercury.]

Henry Law, a negro, just committed to jail at Huntsville, Texas, stole last winter more than $600, and while on the way to the penitentiary stole from the sheriff's pocket the evidence of his conviction. After this was recovered he escaped from custody, and was only captured after nearly a year's search. When found he was attired in female apparel.

A girl, keeper of a toll-gate in England, was asked by a well-voiced peddler, who thought to chaff her, how much he had to pay. "That sir," replied she, "depends upon whether you ride through the gate, or whether you get off your dandy-horse and drag it through; because in that case every two-wheeled vehicle drawn by a horse or an ass pays three-pence."

About the most sensible exhibition to be seen in Boston at the present time is the baby show. It is composed of 300 cooling, dimpled-cheeked, drooling, fat-grawing infants, in the various stages of lactated culture and effluvia. Their united qualls almost equal the yells of Gilmore's monster chorus.

A Roman Catholic priest, who has been in charge of the pastorate at Circleville, Ohio, was married to a Miss Sullivan, of that city on the 5th of last month. He had previously been excommunicated by Bishop Rosecrans.

An excellent arrangement to facilitate slumber during sermon time in church has been invented by J. H. Weeden, of Waterbury, Conn. It is "an improved head-rest for attachment to church pews, formed by the combination of the stuffing, covering-plate, band, base-plate, and springs with each other."

A German shoemaker who had undertaken to make a pair of boots for a gentleman of whose financial integrity he had considerable doubt, replied, when asked for the articles: "Der poots is not quite done, but der beel is made out."

A Missouri grasshopper attacked a little girl a few days since, and so nearly destroyed her ear that a surgeon had to be called in.

General Lee has had a house built for him by public subscription at Lexington, Va.

EXECUTION OF A NEGRO MURDERER.—At Darlington, S. C., on Friday last, Cyrus Coachman, a negro, convicted of the murder of a merchant, Robert P. Suggs, near Florence, on the 10th of January last, suffered the extreme penalty of the law. This criminal confidently anticipated that he would be rescued by his brethren of the Union League, saying, early in the morning, "I do not think I'll be hung, as I belong to a league, the members of which are sworn to protect each other, and I do not believe they will let me be hung." There was great excitement among the negroes of the neighborhood, and fears were entertained that an effort would be made by them to rescue the prisoner, but no interference was attempted. The Sheriff and most of the officials who acted on the occasion were negroes.

BEAT FORTY YEARS AGO.—We notice in an exchange the following item of foreign news: "An English actor recently played the same evening at London and at Dover, ninety miles distant."

This was beat nearly half a century ago, before the days of steamboats and of railroads, by the great "American tragedian" Cooper, the father of our estimable fellow-citizen, Major James F. Cooper. That gentleman was a dear lover of fine horses, and wagering that he could play in New York and Philadelphia on the same night, he, with the aid of his fine teams, actually accomplished the feat—the distance traveled being, we believe, 100 miles. [Atlanta (Ga.) Intelligencer.]

MATRIMONIAL.—"There is many a slip between the cup and the lip." This old aphorism was verified in this city on Wednesday evening this wise: On that morning, a young gentleman went to a distinguished minister to engage his services to tie the knot matrimonial for a friend on the following morning. The wedding dresses were prepared and the gloves procured, and all promised to go "as merrily as a marriage bell," when lo! the lady changed her mind, as ladies have a right to do, and without saying by your leave, &c., took a quiet walk to a neighbor's, where she was met by a former lover and a J. P., who duly married them "according to law." [Charlotte (N. C.) Times.]

A CUTTING RETORT.—A gentleman who was walking near Oxford was met by some students of the university, one of whom addressed him with: "Good morning, Father Abraham." "I am not Father Abraham," "Good morning, Father Isaac," said a second. "I am not Father Isaac," was the reply. "Good morning, Father Jacob," said a third. "I am neither Abraham, Isaac nor Jacob, but Saul, son of Kish, who went to seek his father's asses, and lo! I have found them."

A gentleman, in the course of a journey in the West, one day suddenly desecrated a country tavern, in the porch of which sat one of the oldest white-haired men he had ever seen, crying like a child. In answer to an inquiry as to the cause, he sobbed out: "My father has just kicked me." Upon entering the bar-room the traveler discovered another and much older man behind the bar, whom he addressed: "You seem to have some trouble here, stranger. Your son informs me that you have whipped him." "Yes," rejoined the landlord excitedly, "I could not avoid it. The young rascal was chasing his grand-father round a ten-acre lot and stoning him. I had to interfere, stranger."

A very young man, living in Montgomery, in love with a very young lady, paid her a visit last Friday evening. The old folks thought that the children were too young to keep company, and conveyed the hint by calling the girl out of the room and sending her to bed. The lady of the house astonished the very young man by bringing into the parlor a huge piece of bread and butter, and saying, in her kindest manner: "There, Bub, take this and run home to your mother; it is time time little boys were in bed." It is one of the most outrageous cases of cruelty we ever knew.

HEAVEN'S JUSTICE.—After the Grand Army of the Republic had left Arlington Cemetery, on decoration day, says the Augusta Constitutionalist, there came "on a great storm of wind and rain. The next day all was bright and fair, but a wondrous change had been wrought. The wind, more charitable than man and more practically indignant, had whirled the flowers off the graves of the Federal soldiers and heaped them upon the neglected and insulted graves of thirty unknown Confederates."

THE CHIEF JUSTICE DOWN SOUTH.—Chief Justice Chase, who has been on a tour of the Carolinas, with his accomplished daughter, Mrs. Senator Sprague, has been received from point to point with marked respect and popular enthusiasm. It means, among other things, that the people are aware of the fact that the Chief Justice still keeps his eye upon the White House, and is likely to be the man for the Democracy in 1872. All the signs of the times point that way. [New York Herald.]

The future King of England is a dolt. At a meeting of the Royal Geographical Society the other day he delivered a speech as follows: "You cannot form so full or favorable an idea of the country described by reading of them in books as you can by visiting them yourselves." On the other hand, his genius for vice is said to rival that of his uncle, George IV.

The rate of taxation in Brooklyn, this year, is four per cent.; in New York, two per cent. The non-tax-paying Legislature of South Carolina has put it to the unfortunate tax-payers at the rate of one hundred and five per cent.

The personal charms of a girl of the period are estimated to cost from $85 to $550, according to the artists employed.

CONSULAR APPOINTMENTS.—Mr. B. Odell Duncan, of Newberry, has been appointed Consul of the United States at Naples.

Three ladies were thrown from a carriage into a mill pond, near Rochester, New York, on Wednesday, and all were drowned.

A Virginia lady sustains life by copiously appointing herself with sweet oil, and eating a cracker three times a year.

A contemporary wants to know whether the one hundred sledge hammer anvil chorons at the Boston Jubilee will be a "blacksmith's strike."

Water is ten cents a gallon at White Pine, and the residents of that elevated locality take their daily bath by walking out naked in the morning mist.

"That's very singular," said a young lady to a gentleman who had just kissed her. "Oh! well, my dear miss," was the reply, "I will soon make it plural;" and the villain did.

A colored man in Quincy, Illinois, has brought a suit to recover $2,000 from a steamer company for having been refused the privilege of eating dinner with the white folks.

Lee Harrison and Thomas Gladman, two respectable colored men of Lynchburg, Va., decline appointments of registrars in Lynchburg because they cannot take the oath.

The lately beheaded postmaster at Waterbury, Connecticut, advertises as "lost," "one hundred dollars paid to a Congressman for the Waterbury post office."

S. C. Hall, the author, is one of a very few persons living who remembers to have seen Garrick act. He alluded to this in a recent lecture, and also said that he had talked with Boswell.

A suit to recover $3,000 in gold, deposited in the Chesapeake Bank at Baltimore, in 1861, has been decided in favor of the depositor, who gets a verdict for that amount in gold, with $909.50 interest, also in gold.

And now here is a little one-horse Government in South America that absolutely defies Great Uncle Sam, and holds his minister prisoner. Hasn't McMahon a right to complain of treatment that forces the representative of a great Government to ruin his digestion in feeding on roasted monkey the best part of a year?

Lightning.

PROF. HENRY, of the Smithsonian Institute, says the OTIS LIGHTNING ROD "combines more of the qualities that go to make a perfect conductor than any I ever saw in Europe or America." Prof. R. O. Doremus, U. S. Surveyor, says: "Of all the forms of Lightning Conductors I examined, the patent insulated rod of Mr. Otis is the most complete." It will commend itself to every scientific mind—there being no metallic connection with the building. On each insulator are points very useful to secure the bolt and prevent damage." The insurance companies of New York city make a deduction to those who have Lightning Rods. Powder magazines throughout Europe have Lightning Rods. See it and you will believe it. The subscriber is prepared to furnish and put up to any kind of building this most valuable invention. Old rods repaired with Otis' patent insulators. Please preserve this. All work warranted. R. H. ## CITIZEN'S SAVINGS BANK

SOUTH CAROLINA

AUTHORIZED CAPITAL, $500,000.

DEPOSITS OF $1 & UPWARDS RECEIVED.

INTEREST at the rate of Six per cent. per annum, (the rate paid by most Savings Banks is from Three per cent. to Five per cent. only,) allowed on deposits, and payable in January and July of each year, or added to principal, and interest compounded, at option of the depositor.

Principal and interest, or any part thereof, may be withdrawn at any time—the Bank reserving the right to demand the usual notice, (with fourteen days if the amount is under $1,000; twenty days if over $1,000, and under $5,000, or thirty days if over $5,000. The officers may, however, in their discretion, and in most instances will, pay without such notice. In order to pay interest to depositors, the Bank must invest its funds; and the object of the notice is to give it time to realize, when necessary, upon its investments. When desired, special interest bearing certificates will be given, payable at a designated time. The Capital of the Bank has been paid in IN CASH, and has been invested by the Directors in reliable securities.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, COMPTROLLER-GENERAL'S OFFICE, COLUMBIA, S. C., March 1, 1869.

I hereby certify that the Citizens' Savings Bank of South Carolina have furnished me with satisfactory evidence that the Capital of said Bank has been paid in, as required by the Act of incorporation, ratified February 12, 1869. (Signed) J. L. NEAGLE, Comptroller-General S. C.

Mechanics, Laborers, Clerks, Widows, Orphans and others may here deposit their savings and draw a liberal rate of interest thereon. Planters, Professional Men and Trustees wishing to draw interest on their funds until they require them for business or other purposes; Parents desiring to set apart small sums for their children, and Married Women and Minors (whose deposits can only be withdrawn by themselves, or in case of death, by their legal representatives,) wishing to lay aside funds for future use, are here afforded an opportunity of depositing their means where they will rapidly accumulate, and at the same time, be subject to withdrawal when needed.
